

CHAPTER NO. 730

SENATE BILL NO. 2957

By Person

Substituted for: House Bill No. 3134

By Stanley

AN ACT To amend Tennessee Code Annotated, Titles 10 and 33, relative to persons with mental illness, serious emotional disturbance, mental retardation, and developmental disabilities; the Department of Mental Health and Developmental Disabilities and its authority; and references to Title 33.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF TENNESSEE:

SECTION 1. Tennessee Code Annotated, Section 33-1-101(18), is amended by:

(1) deleting the words "senior psychological examiner or certified psychological assistant" and substituting the words "or senior psychological examiner";

(2) deleting the words "Master's degreed nurse" and substituting "nurse who has a Master's degree in nursing";

(3) deleting the words "two (2) years of full time".

SECTION 2. Tennessee Code Annotated, Section 33-2-403(b), is amended by:

(1) Deleting the words "personal care" in subdivision (2) and substituting the words "service or support".

(2) Deleting the words "A person" in subdivisions (3) and (4) and substituting the words "An individual".

SECTION 3. Tennessee Code Annotated, Section 33-2-406, is amended by deleting the second sentence of subsection (h) and substituting the following: "A license may be issued only for the premises or services named in the application, must be posted in a conspicuous place at the service or facility, and may be renewed from year to year. A license is not assignable or transferable except as permitted by Section 4 of this act."

SECTION 4. Tennessee Code Annotated, Section 33-2-418, is amended by deleting the word "or" at the end of subdivision (1); by deleting the period at the end of subdivision (2) and substituting instead a semicolon and the word "or"; and by adding the following language as a new subdivision to be designated as follows:

(3) Housing for service recipients when the commissioner authorizes the transfer of a license at the same site to a successor provider if, and only if, the license holder's contract with the department is terminated, the transfer of license is necessary to sustain the quality of life of the service recipients, and the successor provider does not increase the number of service recipients at the site.

SECTION 5. Tennessee Code Annotated, Section 33-2-602, is amended by adding the following: "The procedure must ensure that each conflict is resolved within fourteen (14) days and the licensee may not cease to provide services and supports to a service recipient with a developmental disability during the pendency of the conflict resolution over the objection of the service recipient."

SECTION 6. Tennessee Code Annotated, Sections 33-2-603 and 33-2-604, are amended by deleting them in their entireties.

SECTION 7. Tennessee Code Annotated, Section 33-2-1109, is amended by deleting the language "§§ 33-5-402--33-5-403," from subdivision (a)(2).

SECTION 8. Tennessee Code Annotated, Title 33, Chapter 3, Part 1, is amended by adding the following section:

Section 33-3-126. A licensee or provider under this title may not discourage or preclude a service recipient from exercising the right to religious expression and shall inform each service recipient in a residential environment of this right. A licensee or provider of religious service may provide transportation for a service recipient under this section.

SECTION 9. (a) Tennessee Code Annotated, Section 33-3-102, is amended by deleting the last sentence of subsection (a).

(b) Tennessee Code Annotated, Section 33-3-102, is further amended by deleting the words "mental health treatment" from subsection (b) and substituting the words "health care".

(c) Tennessee Code Annotated, Title 33, Chapter 4, Part 1, is amended by adding the following as a new section:

Section 33-4-110. If the chief officer of a facility in which a service recipient is hospitalized or admitted is of the opinion that the service recipient is unable to exercise any of the rights afforded by Chapters 3 and 4, the chief officer shall notify immediately the service recipient and the service recipient's attorney, parent, legal custodian, spouse or other nearest known adult relative of the fact, and the chief officer may file for the appointment of a conservator and shall notify those persons as to whether the chief officer intends to do so.

SECTION 10. Tennessee Code Annotated, Section 33-3-105, is amended by deleting subsection (5) and substituting the following:

(5) A service recipient moves from one service provider to another and exchange of information is necessary for continuity of service; or

SECTION 11. Tennessee Code Annotated, Section 33-3-106, is amended by deleting the acronym "PAIIM" from the last sentence of subsection (a) and substituting the acronym "PAMII".

SECTION 12. Tennessee Code Annotated, Section 33-3-108, is amended by deleting it and substituting the following:

(a) Section 33-3-103 does not preclude making reports of harm or granting access to records if making reports of harm or granting access to records are expressly required by:

(1) the Child Abuse Reporting Law, Title 37, Chapter 1, Part 4;

(2) the Child Sexual Abuse Reporting Law, Title 37, Chapter 1, Part 6; or

(3) the Adult Protective Services Law, Title 71, Chapter 6.

(b) The identity of a person who reports abuse, exploitation, fraud, neglect, or mistreatment to the department is confidential and may not be disclosed without the person's consent, except as follows:

(1) as necessary to carry out the laws cited in subsection (a);

(2) to employees of the department as necessary to investigate the report;

(3) to the abuse registry;

(4) to the appropriate district attorney;

(5) by order of a court with jurisdiction over abuse, exploitation, fraud, neglect, or mistreatment;

(6) by order of a court or administrative law judge in a proceeding involving sanctions or disciplinary actions against a caregiver or an entity accused of abuse, exploitation, fraud, neglect, or mistreatment, when it appears to such court or administrative law judge that the person making the report is or may be a witness to facts relevant to the proceeding.

The person's identity is irrelevant to any civil proceeding and is not subject to disclosure, except in cases where a caregiver or other person is the subject of a complaint and can make a showing that the complaint was made with malice so that the caregiver or other person may pursue such remedies as may be permitted by law. The person may be subpoenaed if the department or district attorney general deem it necessary to protect the service recipient who is the subject of the report, but the fact that the person made the report may not be disclosed.

SECTION 13. Tennessee Code Annotated, Section 33-3-109, is amended by deleting the second sentence and substituting the following:

Such records shall include only the finding of incompetence or competence, the court order that makes the finding and appoints the fiduciary, and the letters of conservatorship or guardianship; these records may be open for inspection by members of the public.

SECTION 14. Tennessee Code Annotated, Section 33-3-114, is amended by:

(1) deleting the word "and" at the end of item (1);

(2) deleting the period from the end of item (2) and substituting a semicolon; and

(3) adding the following items:

(3) Judicial proceedings under Chapter 8, Part 3; and

(4) Guardianship, conservatorship, and veterans' guardianship proceedings under Title 34.

(b) Tennessee Code Annotated, Section 33-3-101, is amended by adding the following language as a new subsection:

() A person with mental illness, serious emotional disturbance, or developmental disability shall be provided services or supports, to the extent that facilities, equipment and personnel are available, in accordance with community standards. The chief officer shall keep records detailing services or supports received by each person. Records shall be preserved by the chief officer for not less than ten (10) years after termination of service. The records may be generated, maintained, or transferred in whole or in part to any recording medium that assures accurate preservation of the record. If a record is transferred from one medium to another, the source record may be destroyed upon determination by the chief officer that the reproduced record is true and correct and will be accurately preserved. The reproduced record is deemed to be the original record.

SECTION 24. Tennessee Code Annotated, Section 33-4-106(a), is amended by:

(1) inserting the words "regardless of the length of the person's absence" at the end of the first sentence between the word "court" and the period; and

(2) inserting the following sentence at the end of subsection (a):

A person's absence beyond thirty (30) days does not limit the power of the court to order the person's return to a facility under this section.

SECTION 25. Tennessee Code Annotated, Section 33-5-106, is amended by deleting the first sentence and substituting the following:

A person with a developmental disability, a parent or legal guardian of a child with a developmental disability, a conservator of a person with a developmental disability, the Department of Children's Services on behalf of a person in its legal custody who has a developmental disability, the Department of Human Services on behalf of a person in its legal custody who has a developmental disability, referred to as the "applicant," may apply to the department through its designated entities for services and supports that they provide directly or by contract.
